1	The above information will be required to be filled up by each Branch Manager in the District in respect of his Service Area after the SSAs have been finalised as per the letter dated 20.12.2012, copy available at http://financialservices.gov.in/. Branchwise Information will then be consolidated by the LDMs for the district, which will then be consolidated for the State by the SLBC Convenor.
2	Col 4: A SSA will have 1000-1500 households each, subject to local geographical and population variations. It could be a panchayat, part of a panchayat or a group of panchayats). Reference para 3(i) of the guidelines dated 20.12.2012
3	Col.5a: No. of SSAs to be covered by existing branches Col 5b: No. of GPs included in these SSAs(5a) Note : The entire Service Area will continue to be served by the Branch for all development activities including implementation of Government schemes, as hitherto. However, for the purpose of column 5(a) of this format, the SSA would be covered by the branch and no BCA/CSC would be available. The number of panchayats to be indicated in Col 5(b) will similarly correspond to the number of panchayats in this SSA being served by the Branch..
